About the Presenters

Ann Sheila Cook, ACSW, LCSW, is the current Director of Special Projects and former Director of Clinical Services of Daniel Memorial Residential, a multi-service children's agency located in Jacksonville, Florida (includes a residential treatment center, group homes, independent living facilities, adoption, therapeutic foster care, outpatient community services, and a charter school). Her social work career includes nine years in public social services in New York State and seven years of experience teaching at the high school and junior college levels. She currently provides clinical supervision to students from FSU, Nova Southeastern, University of North Florida and Jacksonville University. She recently completed a three-year term on the ACSW Exam Committee for NASW.

Brenda H. Schimmel, ACSW, LCSW, BCD, has been in private practice since 1976 doing counseling and psychotherapy in Sarasota and Bradenton, Florida. She was a founder of Family Partner, Inc., which provided Geriatric Care Management on the West Coast of Florida. She has taught Parent Effectiveness Training for seven years. She is certified in NLP Hypnotherapy, Critical Incident Stress Debriefing, and Eye Movement Desensitization Reprocessing.

Ann Sheila Cook and Brenda Schimmel have been teaching the Licensure Prep Course for the last thirteen years.
